This week's roundtable discussion was interactive and informative and we were fortunate to hear from a variety of landlords, small business owners and industry experts from the legal, construction and lending industries. Each of them shared how they are managing the crisis and their opinions on how this could shape their businesses in the future.

Please join us again this coming Wednesday for an update on what we are seeing in the commercial real estate market and to hear from other businesses that are in the same position as you.
